Coincident with yesterday's matches was an eighteen-hole medal play handicap, which resulted in a tie for first net prize between E. G. B. Riley, of Cranford, with a card of 83-13-70 and J. B. Wooten, of the home club, with 78-8-70. The gross score trophy went to Kammer, who made a capital 74 in his morning match against B. T. Allen, the Staten Island title holder. As the score indicates, Kammer was in rare form before luncheon, but he acted like a different man against White. The last named, by the way, had his hands full in disposing of P. W. Kendall, the far driver from Deal, in the semi-final. Inability to get going, chiefly because of a ragged short game, left Kendall 5 down at the twelfth hole, and had he been able to pull the match out of the fire then it would however, succeed in winning the next four Kendall also had the better drive to the seventeenth, but in attempting to "gob-

ing White a winner by a 2 and 1 margin. In the decisive match there never was a his opening drive into a trap that White trophies. looked like anything but a winner. Playing in his easy style with little or no effort. ## YALE WINS ON TRACK

Defeats Harvard by Close Score in Annual Dual Meet.

WRANGLE OVER POINTS

Alleged False Start in Two Twenty-Yard Hurdles Causes Difference.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] New Haven, May 13.—Yale defeated Harvard in the annual dual track meet here to-day by a score of 541/2 to 481/2 points. That is the technical score, but the real score was. Yale 59% and Harvard 44%. a dispute arising over the final heat in the 220-yard low hurdles. Yale had qualified Chisholm and Platt, and Harvard Lewis and Cummings. The Harvard men broke away and covered the distance in a jog in the time of 441-5 seconds, the Yale men not starting.

The Harvard runners claimed the gun had been fired, Lewis saying "something snapped." The starter ordered the men back, but James E. Sullivan, the referee. refused to allow it, saying the Harvard runners had beaten the gun by two yards. and it was the starter's fault.

His interpretation was held to be correct. but on an agreement among the Harvard and Yale captains, Foster and Kilpatrick, and W. F. Garcelon, the graduate manager of Harvard, who said it was the only sportsmanlike thing to do, the race was run over, Chisholm winning easily for Yale and Cummings and Lewis, of Harvard, finishing in the order named. Mr. Sullivan refused to allow the secon race to change the points, and advised Mr. Garcelon to do away with the rules next year and let sportsmanlike officials rule. The matter was left in abeyance, to be adjudicated at a meeting later. Yale's superiority in the sprints, hurdles and field events won the meet. Yale won all three places in the 230-yard dash, broad ump and pole vault, first and second places in the shot-put and 100-yard dash and first in both hurdles and the high jump, a total of eight firsts, to Harvard's five. Harvard made a clean sweep of all three places in the half-mile, mile and two-mile runs, besides taking first places in the 40-yard and Purple and White Relay Four The track events were all well contested.

Reilly's performance in winning the 100yard dash in 10 seconds flat, with less than a half yard separating all six runners, was especially interesting. Yale's four men to 52.5-6 points, the Polytechnic Preparatory qualify in the 220 led the two Harvard en- School athletes established a new point tries to the tape, holding apparently plenty record when they captured the team honors of reserve speed, and with a strong wind in the annual interscholastic meet of the alding the distance was covered in 22 sec- Amherst Alumni Association, of Brooklyn onds flat

The surprise of the day was the placing f Farrar second to Kelley, of Harvard, in the 446. It was a close race all the way Platt, of Yale, fell down in the final heat of the low hurdles. Captain Foster of Harvard, after placing third in the 100-yard the 220-yard dash and was forced to retire for good, after running 180 yards. Harvard's superiority in the distance runs was very clearly marked, the Yale men putting up losing fights for third places.

The performance of Gardner, of Yale, in the pole vault on the vault-off, after three Yale men had tied for first place at 11 feet 9 inches, was the best individual performance of the day, as in the exhibition he cleared 12 feet 8 inches, but Mr. Sullivan refused to allow it as a record because it was not done in competition. ## POLO FAST AND FURIOUS

Meadow Brook Four Astounds Spectators with Dashing Play.

ENGLISHMEN SEE MATCH

Captain Cheape Speechless with Admiration at Speed of Americans.

America's international polo four disc played the speed of its ponies, smashing, hitting and splendid manœuvring on the home field at Meadow Brook yesterday, while an interested assemblage of the Long Island fashionable colony watched and applauded. In the first match of a handicap tournament for individual cups the Meadow Brook four defeated the Freebooters by the score of 12 goals to 9, allowing the latter a 7-goal handicap.

With dashing gallops and sizzling long shots, men, mailets and ponies mixed in wild and furious chases after the ball, and the contest assumed the aspect of a dress rehearsal of the international cup match only a little more than two weeks off. This effect was heightened by the fact that the new international field was used. The turf was as smooth as a velvet pad for the flying hoofs of the ponies. To east and west the big stands towered, lacking only the thousands that will crowd them, while the side boards glistened white and trim at the feet of the throng that fringed the field. Under the captaincy of Harry Payne Whitney, the Meadow Brooks played rattling polo. They had to. The Freebooters against them, composed of Louis E. Stoddard, R. L. Agassiz, Rene La Montagne, Foxhall Keene and Malcolm Stevenson, rode and hit well. Meadow Brook played its favorite triangle formation. The two Waterburys advanced well up the field, Harry Payne Whitney trailing, and all pivoting on the tremendous backhanders which Devereaux Milburn sent whanging over the turf, often for the length of the field Then it was ride down the ball and beautiful hits for the goals, with all the fire of a cavalry charge as the players centred upon the ball.

Captain Leslie St. C. Chespe, of the English team, and Dr. Noian, the British trainer, watched the manœuvring with keen and critical interest. Captain Cheape was asked what he thought of the performance of the American cup defenders. 'I am speechless with admiration," was all the reply he was willing to make to in-At the first throw-in of the ball Larry Waterbury cracked out a goal without interference, as Devy Milburn and Whitney sent the painted sphere bounding over the turf. He repeated the trick before Foxhall Keene and La Montagne began to head off the play. Keene in the second period managed to catch Milburn napping as he Columbia overwhelmed Lafayette in a dual track meet on South Field yesterday by the score of $2 points to 35.
